Dear Partners,

We are very pleased to announce the launch of new Summer School Program at the University of Lausanne!

We believe that our intensive programs will allow your students to discover our campus in Lausanne, while deepening their knowledge in specific areas. The Summer schools are open to students from across the world, at undergraduate, graduate or doctoral level, depending on the schools. You can find the selection criteria, application procedures and all the relevant information on the website UNIL Summer Schools.

In 2017, the University of Lausanne will offer the following courses:

- Transitional Justice, 12 -23 June
- Intensive French courses, 3 July - 1 September
- Undergraduate Research Programme in Biology and Medicine (SUR), 3 July - 25 August
We would be thankful if you could share this message with faculties and students who might be interested. Should you have any question regarding the UNIL Summer Schools, do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to welcoming your students next summer!

SAD ANNOUNCEMENT – MUDR. TOMÁŠ FREY

We announce with deep regret that on January 2, 2017 after a long severe illness died assistant professor of the Department of Dermatology 3rd FM CU MUDr. Tomáš Frey, CSc.

Tomáš Frey was a great personality of the Czech Dermatovenereology and he specialized mainly in Dermatosurgery, Aesthetic dermatology and Histopathology. Especially in Dermatosurgery he raised at its last department of FNKV series of successors who had replaced him during his long illness and gave his experience to large group of young people interested in industry-up corrective dermatology.

As. Frey s As. Mardešíčovou a Dr. Dahmenem na operačním sále

As. Frey was not only an excellent dermatovenereologist but more for than a quarter century he worked for the committee of the Czech Dermathovenerology Company ČLS JEP and became its honorary member. For this important work for he had a big thanks of all of us.

CYCLE OF CHILDREN’S UNIVERSITY

On 30. 11. 2016 at 3rd FM CU (as the first medical faculty in the Czech Republic) started the cycle of Children’s University.

The aim of this project (initiated by the Faculty of Philosophy CU in last year) is to introduce to pupils of elementary schools some subjects taught at our faculty. Faculty contacted all elementary schools in Prague and Central Bohemia.

FIRST MEETING - ANATOMY

In the first round on 30. 11. 2016 there were more than 500 candidates (mostly of students from third to fifth classes of primary school). More than thirty pupils attended the first topic Anatomy.

Thanks to doc. Zachovi and dr. Riedlové children spent ninety minutes becoming familiar with the anatomy of the brain, skeletal system and the anatomy of the heart. In the following seven blocks they will explore the basic of physiology, histology, biochemistry, first aid, nursing and medical ethics. In the case of interest and the success of the first round we will open the Children’s University for pupils of 2nd grade of elementary school in the spring semester.

Thanks to Dr. Svobodové and Mrs. Ruth Fialové for the organization and recruitment, Adam Vlach for the creation of a special index and students under the direction of Antonín Kuta for organization.

SECOND MEETING - PHYSIOLOGY

The second meeting took place on December 14, 2016 at the Institute of normal, clinical and pathological physiology and was led by a big help of students of 3rd FM doc. Franek.

Children were initially familiar with the contents of physiology and subsequently in a lively discussion they clarified the relationships and connections between blood (oxygen transport), lungs (entry of oxygen into the body) and the cardiovascular system (distribution of oxygen around the body). The talk was accompanied by simple diagrams and illustrative animation. In the second part the pupils are divided into two groups. The first was devoted to measuring their own vital capacity for portable spirometer. The second visit zodiac Institute where children are acquainted with the basics of breeding and use of laboratory rats for experimental purposes. Then both halves swapped.
The third meeting took place on January 11, 2017 was histological. All participants coped working with a microscope and identifying specimens of organs and tissues of the human body under the direction of Lucie Hubičková Heringová enthusiastically and perfectly.

Just as well they did by watching of chick embryo. Thanks to Lucie Hubičková Heringová, Antonín Kuta, Hana Svobodová and Ruth Fialová for the administrative arrangement, Jakub Fuks for photo documentation and also to all students.

Next meeting Biochemistry.

IFMSA – PROJECT „ARRANGE BY HANDS“

As well as last year, a project of IFMSA called “Arrange by hands” continued during the winter semester. The project is designed to reduce barriers between future doctors and deaf patients and is directed by excellent lecturer Mgr. Lenka Kučabová of the Czech Union of the Deaf. Without her this project would not be so successful and popular. We thank her very much. This year we managed to include this project as an optional subject, with a guarantee of prof. Jaromír Astl, Head of the Department of Otorhinolaryngology and Maxillofacial Surgery, 3rd FM CU and ÚVN. If you did not know about this project, so do not worry, it will repeat again in next winter semester of the academic year. We consider about the expansion of capacity and the repetition enrolment in the summer semester which had to be directed by a new project coordinator Catherine Janštová student of 3rd year of General Medicine. Everyone who participated in the project so far, thank you very much.

Dominik Pokorný, former coordinator of the project, member of IFMSA
SERIES OF SEMINARS FOR DOCTORAL CANDIDATES “DEVELOPMENT OF PEDAGOGICAL SKILLS”

STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE 2017 – 1ST INFORMATION

Student Scientific Conference of 3rd FM CU will be held on Tuesday, May 23, 2017. The Conference will be similar to last year, divided into lectures and poster section with the majority of the presentations will be in the form of posters. An independent expert committee will decide on the breakdown of contributions to sections. As part of the poster session will be „the moderated discussion” with five-minute competitor´s presentation. The form for abstracts will be opened on March 1, 2017 on fakulty website (svk.lf3.cuni.cz). In order to divide the contributions into individual sections, the contributions will be not accepted after the deadline for submitting an abstract which is set on April 9, 2017. Students who will not submit the abstract by this time, will be not allowed to participate at SRC 2017 and therefore will not get credit for registered SRC!

The actual text of the abstract should not exceed more than 2500 characters (including spaces) to fit on one page of compilation. You can add a maximum of one attachment (charts, tables, image etc.,) to the text. Please note that the abstract should be submitted by using the electronic form on this page, the abstracts in text forms sent by email will be not accepted.

The author may choose the section (theoretical, clinic, postgraduated, bachelor). Students of PhD study always choose postgraduated section without distinction to clinical and theoretical section. The author may not or may choose a form of presentation that she/he prefers (lecture, resp. poster). However, the final allocation will be decided by the committee which is composed of experienced scientists of our faculty. If there is more than one author per paper, the abstract is served only by the student and the other colleagues are mentioned as co-investigator. After submitting the abstract all authors will receive the confirmation email. Even after sending the abstract the text can be edited until the deadline which is set on April 9, 2017 (23:59). Please fill out the form on the computer not on the tablet (it may not work well).

More info how to create the abstract you can find at http://www.acponline.org/education_recertification/education/program_directors/abstracts/prepare/res_abs.htm.

You can also view the compilations from previous years of konference at http://www.lf3.cuni.cz/3LF-797.html. Please send your questions to the address svk@lf3.cuni.cz.

JOB OFFER FOR POST-DOCTORAL STUDENTS

Search for a candidate to apply at a Post-Doctoral Fellow grant of the FRM (“Fondation pour la Recherche Médicale’’)

Place:
Mediterranean Center of Molecular Medicine (C3M, Nice) Team: Cellular and Molecular Physiopathology of Obesity and Diabetes. Director: Dr TANTI Jean-François and Dr CORMONT Mireille

Administrative requirements:
The candidate (French or Foreign) should have obtained his/her PhD between the 22 March 2016 and the 31 December 2017. The application deadline is 15 June, 2017. The answer of the application will be available in November 2017. In case of obtaining funding, he/she must take the position no later than May 22, 2018. The position could be asked for 2 or 3 years without possibility of renewal.
For foreign applicants, application to the European Marie Curie individual fellowships could be considered.
Project:
The main objective of the team is to identify novel molecular mechanisms linking obesity to insulin resistance that yields to metabolic syndrome. More specifically, the project will be in continuity of our recent discovery published in Diabetes (Vergoni et al., Diabetes 2016) that described the appearance of senescent-like adipocytes in the adipose tissue at the onset of obesity. He/she will have in charge to discover why these senescent-like adipocytes appears and how they contribute to the metabolic inflammation of the adipose tissue during obesity. The project will require the use of mice models as well as in vitro experiments with culture cell lines as well as primary adipocytes and immune cells.

Skills: The candidate should have a background in the physiopathology of metabolic diseases. Expertise in immunology will be a plus.

Techniques used: RT-qPCR; Western Blot, Flow cytometry, confocal imaging

Contact: Dr Mireille CORMONT cormont@unice.fr

ANNUAL BALL OF THE THIRD FACULTY OF MEDICINE 2017

We're very happy to invite all of you to the 19th Annual Ball of the Third Faculty of Medicine which will be held On Friday, March 10, 2017 at 7:00 p.m. in the Národní dům at Vinohrady.

You have the unique opportunity to dress up and dance shoes to the beat of many dance styles. There will be many performances to see, a poll for the most popular faculty teacher called “Syllabova chalk” and of course the raffle will not miss.

Let’s start the new semester in style!

OFFER OF STATISTICS CONSULTATIONS FOR SUMMER SEMESTER 2017

The Department of Probability and Mathematical Statistics MFF CU offers to staff and students of CU the possibility of statistical consultation for free of charge.

Consultation students are performed by students of KPMS master’s degree under the supervision of an experienced professional.

Topics:
- Selecting of a suitable arrangement of the planned experiment, selection of measured quantities and their measurement, advice to calculate the required sample size.
- Selection of appropriate statistical methods for data analysis, the proper implementation of these methods and interpretation of results.
- Advice on methods of visualization and presentation of statistical data and results of analysis.

Time:
Summer semester – from March to the end of May 2017. The length of the consultation is maximum of 45 minutes.

ON-LINE COURSE OF UNIVERSITY LEIDEN — FREE OF CHARGE

Let me bring our new Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) to your attention.

LUMC offers free online course on transplantation
The LUMC is the first medical institution in the world to offer a Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) on clinical kidney and pancreas transplantation.

English-language and international
Transplant experts at the LUMC created this free English-language course over the past year together with Leiden University. Its broad international approach means it is well suited for use in medical training. Dr. Marlies Reinders is the senior lecturer supervising the project.

Interactive clinical cases
The course consists of a number of modules, each one ending with an interactive clinical case study where the students have to actively find solutions. There are weekly presentations with questions, assignments and visualizations, including a kidney transplant.

MOOC in medical curricula
The MOOC is there for everyone who wants to learn more about transplant medicine, and more specifically medical students and professionals. Partners of the League of European Research Universities (LERU) will follow suit. The course is free and will start on the online Coursera online platform.

Online Learning Lab
The MOOC has been developed with funding from Leiden University and investments by the LUMC in novel educational methods. Transplant experts at the LUMC have created the course in collaboration with the Online Learning Lab, part of Leiden University’s Centre for Innovation. The Online Learning Lab has already developed many popular online courses.

More Leiden MOOCs
A second LUMC MOOC, Anatomy of the abdomen and pelvis, is also available. Further Leiden MOOCs on a wide range of subjects can be found on the Coursera site.

Evelien Hack, International Office of the LUMC

SUMMER SCHOOL AARHUS - DENMARK

The courses are within the fields of Arts, Business and Economics, Business Communication, Political Science and Law, Health, Science and Technology. Students can apply wherever they like, not just at the Faculty of Arts.

All of the courses are held in English and most of them are located in Aarhus (some courses are placed outside Aarhus due to the fact that the content of the courses is related to a sudden location/a laboratory or alike).

See a list of all the courses here: http://www.au.dk/en/summeruniversity/courses/

The time period for the AU Summer University is between 3rd July – 11th August 2017. However, some courses have a different time schedule, so please check the individual courses for more information!

If nominated through our Erasmus Agreement, the course(s) are for free.

Please remind the students to apply through Aarhus University at the latest 15th of March 2017. http://www.au.dk/en/summeruniversity/application/application/admissionforexchangestudents/

Job Offer for PhD Students - Optogenetics: Controlling the Brain with Light

PhD students Job offer at the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH)

The experimental neurobiology research program is home to scientists who study biochemistry, physiology, pharmacology, and behavioral functions of nervous systems as well as mechanisms of neurological and psychiatric diseases.

Optogenetics: Controlling the Brain with Light

Optogenetics is the combination of genetics and optics to control specific cells in living tissue. In neuroscience optogenetics is used to control the activity of defined brain cell types at defined times— with a level of millisecond precision, crucial to understand how brain activity is linked to behavior. We will take advantage of optogenetic manipulation of activity of PV-interneurons to investigate goal driven behavior. We will optogenetically activate and silence the target class of interneurons while recording activity brain activity in the prefrontal cortex. If you are interested in cutting edge neuroscience research become part of our research team.

Summer School in Bonn - Germany

Summer School on Intellectual Property
Bonn, July 31 – August 11, 2017

University of Bonn
The University of Bonn invites graduate and postgraduate students as well as young professionals from any field of study or discipline to a Summer School on Intellectual Property in Bonn.

The Summer School will take place from July 31 to August 11, 2017.
The program offers:
• classes that cover the main areas of Intellectual Property
• guest lectures on selected Intellectual Property issues
• excursions (for example to innovative institutions and companies).

The Summer School is open to 30 participants. The program is conducted in English.

The classes and guest lectures will take place on the new Campus Poppelsdorf of the University of Bonn.

Objective
The Summer School introduces students to the main areas of Intellectual Property and examines important Intellectual Property issues. The students will be able to discuss Intellectual Property issues with professionals from Intellectual Property organizations, innovative companies, research facilities, law offices, and the University of Bonn.

The Summer School aims to provide graduate and postgraduate students as well as young professionals with insight into the field of Intellectual Property and an appreciation of the significant role of Intellectual Property in furthering the economic and technological development, and particularly in promoting innovation.

Program:
The classes cover the main areas of Intellectual Property:

• Introduction to IP
• Patents and Trade Secrets
• IP Management
• Copyright
• Trademarks
• Industrial Designs
• Unfair Competition
• IP and Contracts.

In addition to classes, the program offers guest lectures on selected Intellectual Property issues. The Summer School in 2016 addressed for example topics such as “IP and Health” and “IP and Biotechnology”. Furthermore, the program includes excursions to institutions and innovative companies. Excursions to the German Aerospace Center and the Center of Advanced European Studies and Research were for example part of the program in 2016.

The instructors and guest lecturers are Intellectual Property experts from Intellectual Property organizations, innovative companies, research facilities, law offices, and the University of Bonn.

Eligibility Requirements
In order to be eligible to register for the Summer School, you must fulfill the requirements given below:
• You are a graduate or postgraduate student or a young professional from any field or discipline (participation in the Summer School is not limited to law students or legal professionals).
• You are proficient in English (prior knowledge of German is not a prerequisite).

Application / Registration
Applicants who wish to participate in the Summer School must apply by April 7, 2017. The selected participants will be notified within one week after the registration deadline.

Further information on the application process is available here: www.ipsummerschool.uni-bonn.de

Participation Fee / Grants
The participation fee is 750 Euros (including the costs for the excursions). Housing and meals are not included in the fee.

A very limited number of grants will be awarded by the University of Bonn to excellent Summer School applicants. Only students can apply for a grant. The grants will consist of partial or full participation fee exemption. Participants will still be responsible for financing housing and meals by themselves, though.

Further information on the participation fee and possible grants is available here: www.ipsummerschool.uni-bonn.de
Certificate of Attendance / ECTS Credits
Each participant who regularly attends the Summer School will receive a Certificate of Attendance.

If you are interested in obtaining ECTS credits, you can gain
• 2 ECTS credits (equivalent to 1 U.S. credit) by regularly attending the Summer School or
• 6 ECTS credits (equivalent to 3 U.S. credits) by regularly attending the Summer School and submitting a paper of about 6,000-6,500 words up to 4 weeks after the end of the Summer School. The submission deadline is September 8, 2017. The topic of the paper must be determined in consultation with the Summer School Coordinator.

Please note that the University of Bonn can only recommend that home institutions award participants with 2 / 6 ECTS credits (equivalent to 1 / 3 U.S. credits).

Detailed Information

MEDIĆ 2017

At hospital in Tábor was held traditional events Medic 2017 from 31.3. to 2.4. 2017. The event was attended by 19 teams from the Czech and Slovak faculties of medicine, our team was composed: Tereza Venclová, Anna-Marie Rappová, Michaela Hrudová, Kristina Hašplová and Michaela Kašparová (all 5th year of study) placed at 13th. The second team was composed: Jan Mares, Kristýna Rohlíčková, Pavel and Ivana Miková Lukášková and overall we collected 77% of the points and finished in 12th place out of 19 teams.

The organizers of the event enabled to all of us to try new things (on the model of endoscopy, laparoscopic skills, fixation of fractures and simulating the birth of the newborn baby with resuscitation), In the teamwork we suggested solutions of case studies from infektodermatologie, liquorologie and radiologists. Each of us got a voucher for a paid internship in South Bohemian hospitals. Throughout the event the organizing team was very friendly and they prepared a rich program and a very congenial atmosphere.

STUDY AT UNIVERSITY OF PADOVA

Galilean School of Higher Education (University of Padova) - Call for foreign students on behalf of the Galilean School of Higher Education of the University of Padova, we have the pleasure to inform you that a new Call for foreign students, wishing to be admitted at the Galilean School, has been published at the link http://www.unipd-scuolagalileiana.it/en/content/call-foreign-students

Candidates can apply on-line between 23 March and 22 May 2017.

We thank you in advance for taking this opportunity into consideration, and for forwarding the following information to people who might be interested.

The Galilean School of Higher Education (SGSS) will offer up to 4 places reserved to foreign students (residing outside Italy), willing to enroll in any Master Program offered by our University. As you might know, our University is structured around the 3+2 Bologna system, and the present call is for the +2 (Master, in Italian Laurea Magistrale, LM) biennial cycle. Any program is eligible, from humanities to sociology to sciences. What really matters is the high quality of the student, so we rely on your kind advice to spread the news among students or faculty you might consider interested.

The official announcement is available on the web site of the School: http://www.unipd-scuolagalileiana.it/en/
Applications must come between 23 March and 22 May 2017, in order to complete the selection by early June 2017. The selection will be based on records of previous University performance, recommendation letters and possibly an interview via skype. Applicants must hold a Bachelor degree (or obtain it before July 31, 2017) and not be older than 26 at the time of application.

The privileges of foreign Galilean students are really appealing, from free lodging and meals, to a contribution to buy books and one return air ticket for each academic year. The Galilean School reserves the right to provide a further economic help up to 5,000,00 Euros for each student. Moreover, the students will enjoy dedicated courses and tutors.

Several curricular programs in our University are entirely taught in English; see www.unipd.it/en/courses/courses-held-english/degree-courses-completely-held-english (the academic year 2017/2018 updates are in progress). May be there are foreign student who would like courses in Italian, e.g. for History or Latin and Greek or Italian literature. The School will provide a dedicate course for learning Italian, which is useful anyhow to live in Padova for two years, and advice for other languages. In conclusion, the School is ready to help with the language issues to the satisfaction of the student. We require very good and motivated students scoring among the top 5% (no votes below 24/30, minimum average 27/30, both in curricular and internal exams during the Master program). The students have to take both Master curricula at the University of Padova and internal courses at the Galilean School. Internal courses are offered in English.

After the Master biennial cycle, the University of Padova offers a good number of PhD Programs suitable for international students and aiming to the internationalisation of research and training in research.

SUMMER SCHOOL OF MOLECULAR MEDICINE IN JENA UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

We would like to draw your attention to the Summer School of Molecular Medicine, which will be held in the Jena University Hospital from August 14 till September 14, 2017. The Summer School will provide an excellent opportunity for young scientists to get familiar with research topics of molecular medicine and modern laboratory techniques. In addition, social events will provide a setting to meet and to learn more about the cultural life in Jena and its environs.

The program is open to participants from all over the world who hold a Master's or Diploma degree in biosciences, biochemistry, medicine or related fields. The candidates will complete practical courses from four different complexes (Molecular Biology, Morphology, Signalling, and Animal Models). The courses are accompanied by a lecture series.

We will not charge a fee for the course. In addition, the accepted candidates will be supported by a DAAD fellowship, which will cover costs for accommodation and most of the travel expenses. Highly motivated candidates who have successfully completed the course will have the possibility to apply for a PhD position in the participating research groups. Candidates with an MD have the possibility of enrolling in the Master's course in Molecular Medicine at Jena University Hospital and joining a PhD programme once they have completed this course.

You will find detailed information about the Summer School on our homepage under the following address: http://www.summerschoolmolmed.uniklinikum-jena.de

We would like to ask you to distribute this information at your university and to encourage young scientists to apply to the Summer School. The deadline is May 1th, 2017.

REPORT ON STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE 2017

The conference was held on May 23, 2017 at 3rd FM CU

The conference was opened on behalf of the Dean by prof. MUDr. Petr Widimsky, DrSc. Honorary guest, the sixth in the history of the conference was prof. MUDr. Bohuslav Ošťádal, DrSc. with a lecture "How different are the male and female hearts?". Attendance at the lecture was abundant and the lecture was very successful. As a thank from the students for his lecture he was honored with an honorary diploma from the hands of statutory representative of dean prof. Widimsky. The lecture of prof. MUDr. Zuzany Motovské, Ph.D. was very successful too. With the title "From SVK to Hotlines" (as enthusiastic, hardworking, scientific "honesty") "as a guest of the newly habilitated or appointed faculty of our faculty.

This year we were asked by Charles University to organize the first year of Science Slam (http://www.scienceslam.cuni.cz/) which took place in the afternoon in the Burian Lecture Hall. Especially for the uninitiated, it was a surprisingly strong positive experience from all presentations. Our students are regularly at the top of the list at similar events (https://www.britishcouncil.com/projects/company/famelab). This year 81 works were registered. The works were divided into 6 categories – 3 (theoretical, clinical and post-graduated) lecture and 3 poster category. Due to the low attendance of the bachelors (only 2 presentations) the bachelor's section was connected with the clinical poster section this year.

Lectures
  - Pregraduate theoretical section – 8
  - Pregraduate clinical section – 8
  - Postgraduate section – 8

Posters
  - Pregraduate theoretical section – 14
  - Pregraduate clinical and bachelor section – 25
  - Postgraduate section – 18

Students’ performance was evaluated by expert panels in the following composition:

Commission for the allocation of allowances: prof. MUDr. Pavel Kalvach, CSc., prof. MUDr. Richard Rokyta, DrSc., prof. RNDr. Jan Kovář, DrSc.

Commission for the theoretical lecture section: doc. MUDr. Miloslav Franěk, Ph.D., doc. RNDr. Ing. Petr Tůma, Ph.D., PharmDr. Magdaléna Šustková, CSc.
The presenting students were assessed according to predefined criteria (points 1 to 10) with 1 being the worst and 10 the best rating. The maximum number of points from one evaluator was 30. The points of all committee members were then counted and based on the achieved scores determined by the sequence for each section separately.

All sections were financially valued from 1st to 3rd place. The financial prizes were for the 1st place of 10,000 CZK, the 2nd place in the poster section was valued at 5,000 CZK and 3rd place - 3,000 CZK. The dean's prize of CZK 10,000 was awarded similarly to last year. Both participating bachelors received an honorary award and Cadenza voucher (http://www.cadenza.cz/) worth CZK 1,000. Another, less formal, award was the audience's prize. All participants were able to vote for any lecture or poster presentation. The winner selected by the audience, as well as the winning voter, received the iPad. The financial award as well as the whole conference was subsidized from the Specific Research Project (260389 / SVV / 2017) which we obtained from Charles University.

2ND DEPARTMENT OF INTERNAL MEDICINE OF THE 3RD FM AND FNKV – MEMBER OF NETWORK ENDO-ERN

2nd Department of Internal Medicine of the 3rd FM and FNKV became the first Endocrinological Center for Adults in the Czech Republic a member of the European Network of Reference Centers for Endocrinology (Endo-ERN - European Reference Network on Rare Endocrine Conditions).

It has been done with the cooperation and support of the Department of Child and Youth Health of the FNKV which can participate in the activities and cooperation within this group. From this point of view there is a unique functional group of endocrinological workplaces integrated in this network in the Czech Republic so far and providing continuous care for patients with endocrinological diseases throughout their lives.

Endo-ERN is a network designed with the aim to increase the availability of highly qualified care for patients with endocrinological diseases especially those with rare occurrences. The activities will cover not only healing and preventive care but also pregraduate and postgraduate education in this field, scientific cooperation and collaboration with patient organizations. This whole set of activities should lead to a similar high quality of care for patients with rare endocrinological diseases in the countries of the European Union.

DEATH OF PROF. MUDR. JIŘÍ HORÁK, CSc.

The Dean of the 3rd FM, Dean's College and the leadership of the Academic Senate of the 3rd FM CU deeply saddened made an announcement that that after a long illness, prof. MUDr. Jiří Horák, CSc., died on May 31, 2017. He was Professor of Internal Medicine, Emeritus Head of the 1st Department of Internal Medicine of the 3rd FM CU and the Faculty Hospital Královské Vinohrady and Vice-Dean of the Faculty in 1990-1997 and 2003-2010.
Prof. MUDr. Jiří Horák, CSc. Graduated from the Faculty of Medicine of Charles University in Hradec Králové. On May 1, 1972, he joined the tissue bank at the Hradec Králové University Hospital but on May 18, director told him that on the decision of the CZS KSČ he was immediately released. Then he joined as a secondary physician at the internal department of NsP Turnov where he moved to the internal department of OÚNZ Náchod. In 1974 he was admitted as a full-time aspirant on the IKEM's first internal research base. The Candidate dissertation on "Hemoperfusion through Activated Coal in Acute Hepatic Failure in the Experiment" he defended in 1978.

In 1979 he was appointed as Assistant Professor at the First Internal Clinic of the Medical Faculty of Hygienic Medicine of the Charles University (today's 3rd Medical Faculty of Charles University) where he worked until the last days. In 1988, he was appointed Associate Professor, in 1992 a professor of Internal Medicine. Between 1990 and 2016 he was the Head of the 1st Department of Internal Medicine of the 3rd FM CU and FN Královské Vinohrady.

For the development of the Czech Hemasorb hematransfusion columns he was awarded by the National Award of the Czech Republic in 1986 (together with M. Tlusťáková, J. Horký and J. Kálam). The prize of the Czech Hepatology Society for the best monograph he received several times: in 1999 (J. Horák, J. Stříteský: Chronic Hepatitis), in 2010 (J. Horák J. et al.: Hemochromatosis) and in 2014 (J. Horák, J. Ehrmann: Pocket Hepatology).

For many years he has been a leading editor of the Journal of Czech Physicians and in the same role in journal Postgraduální medicína

He was a member of the European Association for the Study of the Liver, the International BioIron Society, the Czech Hepatology Society, the Czech Gastroenterological Society, the Czech Society of Pathology and Clinical Physiology, the Czech Internist Society, the Scientific Council of the 3rd FM CU and the Accreditation Commission of the Ministry of Health of the Czech Republic for gastroenterology.

Prof. MUDr. Jiří Horák, CSc. was one of those who had been developing a curriculum of medicine at the faculty since the mid-nineties. Academic principles of the Faculty's life were absolutely true for him. The 3rd faculty of Medicin of Charles University and the medical public lose in prof. MUDr. Jiří Horák, CSc. honest man, excellent doctor, nice colleague and consistent and gentle teacher.

Honor his memory!

THE THIEME TEACHING ASSISTANT: ANATOMY– CLINICAL ILLUSTRATION FOR HUMAN BODY IN HIGHER RESOLUTION FOR ANATOMY TRAINING - TRIAL ACCESS

Thieme publishes offers a trial access to The Thieme Teaching Assistant: Anatomy - a presentation tool that allows users to access and download high-resolution clinical images from anatomy. You can use it until 30.9.2017.

Lecturers can for example download and incorporate dynamic color images into their presentations which will allow students to expand their knowledge in the classroom. Then students can use color images to study and for self-assessment of their anatomy knowledge.

Direct and remote access you can find here PEZ.

Call for participation for students, institutions and industries: Innovation Research Lab Exhibition (IRLE) 2017, Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nürnberg, Germany

Respected Ladies and Gentlemen,

Students from all disciplines, institutes and industries are invited to participate in the annual exhibition of Innovation Research Lab and present their ideas on how to improve human life. All of the finalists will be invited to present their projects, portfolios and various participation possibilities in interactive stands and receive a certificate. The students will additionally have chance to win financial awards and fellowships.

This competition event would be an excellent opportunity for the students at your university, regardless of their background of study (any student from engineering, medicine, management, healthcare etc. can apply and participate), as IRL is a platform which brings together innovative ideas from all over the world.

We kindly ask you to forward this call for participation to your students, faculty and employees as well as post it on your website for the annual Innovation Research Lab Exhibition (IRLE) 2017, Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nuremberg, Germany. We sincerely thank you for your effort and apologize if this email has been already forwarded to you.

Do not hesitate to contact us at irl@fau.de in case you have any questions.

AWARDING OF PROF. MUDR. PAVEL KALVACH, CSc.

European Academy of Neurology awarded prof. MUDr. Pavel Kalvach with "Award for special services" (the letter of the President of the European Academy from February 2017 was attached) which he took over in Amsterdam 24.6. 2017. He received a golden neurological hammer with a dedication engraving (photo attached). This is also the legacy of FEAN (Fellow of the European Academy of Neurology) and the right to participate freely at the next congresses of the European Neurological Academy. Thanks to prof. Kalvach for these benefits was, in addition to performing the function of Secretary General and later Vice-President EFNS, the organization of 18 annual “European Spring School for Young Neurologists” prepared in cooperation with Mrs. Magda Dohnalová, and the establishment and organization of “Regional Teaching Courses” which was organized over 10 years in more than 8 Eastern European countries.
In March 2017 prof. Kalvach was awarded with “the Honorary Professor of PSMU” by the Permian State Medical University. This was done on the basis of cooperation with the neurological clinic there, the performance of lectures in Perm in 2009 and 2017 and the promotion of the participation of their postgraduate students in European educational events.

Congratulations!

PHYSICAL RESEARCH ASSISTANCE – ELECTRONIC COLLECTION OF DATA

Dear All,
Will you help us with image research? It’s easy. Please fill anonymously basic information about yourself, a short questionnaire and then name 70 black-and-white drawing drawings. That is all. It takes 10-15 minutes. The purpose of this research is to find Czech and unambiguously naming images that we absolutely need for the development of various tests and other aids for the elderly people and patients with Alzheimer's disease. When you give us an email, we can communicate with you in the future (eg, letting you know how it happened with the images which will take up to several years, offer you participation in our further research, etc.).

We appreciate that by filling in an electronic questionnaire you will make a significant contribution to improving the care of patients with Alzheimer's disease. Please click here to start filling out: https://goo.gl/forms/aua9vxzY8goinfVk1

We will be glad that you extend our request in any way between any of your friends.

With thanks and respect.

SCHOLARSHIPS – GERMANY - BAYERN

JAHRESSTIPENDIUM POSTGRADUIERTENSTUDIUM IN BAYERN 2017 - 2018

Fundiertes Spezialwissen, die Fähigkeit zu interdisziplinärem Arbeiten und inter- nationale Erfahrung sind wesentliche Anforderungen, die an Akademikerinnen und Akademiker in Europa heute gestellt werden.

Ein Postgraduiertenstudium im Ausland kann die im Erststudium erworbenen Qualifikationen ergänzen und vertiefen sowie einen wichtigen Beitrag zur persönlichen Weiterentwicklung leisten. Auf dieser Basis können Sie den Herausforderungen in Praxis, wissenschaftlicher Forschung und Lehre besser begegnen.

Gefördert werden Aufbaustudien, Forschungsaufenthalte und Promotionen an staatlichen und staatlich geförderten Universitäten und Hochschulen in Bayern. Wichtig ist, dass Sie uns in Ihrer Bewerbung deutlich machen, dass Ihr Postgraduiertenstudium in sinnvoller Weise an Ihr erstes Studium anschließt und Sie Ihrem beruflichen Ziel näher bringt.

Bewerbungsschluss: 1. Dezember 2017 [Eingangsdatum!]

The interaction between food, nutrition, and human disease is a rapidly evolving area of research. The Winter School's program "Food and Health" will bridge the gap between different disciplines by offering a strong multidisciplinary environment, where students will have the opportunity to follow a variety of sequentially related courses on food quality and health.

This Winter School program focuses on the most relevant aspects of food quality and human nutrition, in order to understand how they are related and how they affect human health, through dietary habits.

ESSEX INTERNATIONAL VISITING FELLOWSHIP

University of Essex
We are looking for high performing, established academics to join our prestigious and highly-competitive Essex International Visiting Fellowships programme. This flagship programme provides support for outstanding researchers to undertake research at the University of Essex, which is of major importance in its field and of significant benefit to Essex’s research.

The programme provides a competitive platform to:

- champion Essex as a centre of scholarly excellence at an international level
- raise the profile of the multi-disciplinary research community at Essex
- engage with external experts
- enrich the research and training environment for early career postgraduate and post-doctoral scholars at Essex

Programme components
The Essex International Visiting Fellowship programme has two components:

- Short-Stay Visiting Fellow – for scholars to spend a maximum of two weeks at Essex
  Call 2 2017/18
  For visiting Fellowships between January-April 2018 Deadline: 30 November 2017

- University Visiting Fellow – for leading, international senior academics to spend up to ten months at Essex
  Extended visiting Fellowships starting in September 2018 Deadline: 31 March 2018

The University of Essex will provide International Visiting Fellows with:
- return economy airfare to/from a nominated airport
- accommodation in a University owned property or a suitable alternative
Eligibility
Essex International Visiting Fellowships are open to all academics, based outside the United Kingdom, who have a sustained track record of significant output, as demonstrated in peer-reviewed literature, and a strong commitment to quality research outputs as judged relative to opportunity.

How to apply
Please visit www.essex.ac.uk/research/community/international-visiting-fellowships.aspx

23RD WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP OF FOOTBALL OF PRACTITIONERS — REPRESENTED BY MUDr. VLADIMÍR TEPLOV

At the beginning of July 2017, the 23rd World Championship of Football of Practitioners took place in Leogang, Austria. The Czechs took part for the fifth round and during the last 3 years they have celebrated the title of world champions. The team is composed of doctors of various specialties from the whole Czech Republic. The permanent member of the team is MUDr. Vladimír Teplan, Ph.D., who works as a lecturer at the Surgical Clinic of the 3rd Faculty of Medicine.

This year the championship was attended by 20 countries from all over the world, the team of the Czech Republic on the way to the defense of the title played 6 matches, in the finals beat the Ukrainian team unambiguously 3:0.

In parallel with the football tournament there was the medical symposium in the field of sports and accident medicine, so the whole event was not only at high sport level but also professional.

Due to repeated successes, the Czech Republic will organize the Championship in 2018. It will take place on 30.6.-7.7. 2018 in Prague on Strahov stadium.

More information can be found on the website www.wmfc2018.com.

REPORT FROM STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE OF MEDICAL FACULTIES OF THE CZECH AND THE SLOVAK REPUBLICS 2017

On November 14 and 15, 2017, the Student Scientific Conference of Medical Faculties of the Czech Republic and Slovak Republic was held at the Faculty of Medicine at University of Palacky in Olomouc. Students of twelve medical faculties of the Czech and Slovak Republics presented a total of 30 works in two days. A new competition was “Competition of audience” where students of the Faculty of Medicine of the ÚPO voted and they will compete in the faculty round of SRC 2018. The organizers prepared an interesting competition in urgent medicine for us which not only showed the students’ ability to react in crisis situations but overall revived the atmosphere of the conference.

Our faculty was represented by these students and fresh graduates with their presentations:

In the non-medical section:
Bc. Pavlína Hrdinová: Péče o seniory s demencí v nemocničním prostředí z pohledu sester

In the preclinical (theoretical) section:
Jan Rambousek: Mikroskopické metody ve studiu hypoxie jako faktoru vzniku diabetes mellitus

In the clinical section:
MUDr. David Šilhán: Vizuální hodnocení parietální atrofie mozku na magnetické rezonanci u Alzheimerovy nemoci

Members of the commissions were: PhDr. Hana Svobodová, Ph.D. (non-medical section), prof. MUDr. Romana Šlamberová, Ph.D. (preclinical section) a doc. MUDr. Jan Polák, Ph.D. (clinical section).

All of our students presented excellent performances and they managed demanding debates and were such dignified representatives of our faculty. In addition, Jan Rambousek ranked 3rd place in the pre-clinical (theoretical) section and MUDr. David Šilhan ranked 3rd place in the competition of spectators.
Congratulations to all students for their successful representation and thank to all members of commissions for their willingness and serious approach to the contestants' evaluation.

prof. MUDr. Romana Šlamberová, Ph.D.
Vice-Dean for Postgraduate Studies and Student Research Activities
